

STATE OF SCIENCE SUMMIT: TREATMENT OF HEMATOLOGIC MALIGNANCIES
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 10 2017 • 5:30 PM - 9:00 PM

LOCATION:

Fairmont Chicago Millennium Park
200 N Columbus Dr
Chicago, IL 60601

TOPICS OF DISCUSSION:

- Acute Myeloid Leukemia
- Multiple Myeloma
- Multiple Myeloma – Does Stem Cell Transplantation Still Have a Role?
- MPN Management in 2017: Novel Treatment Approaches
- T-Cell Lymphoma: One Size Does Not Fit All
- Checkpoint Inhibition Comes of Age for Treatment of Hodgkin Lymphoma
- Gene modified T-cells to treat B-cell disorders : Is immune manipulation by chimeric antigen T-cells (CAR-t cells) the future in DLBCL?

To register, please contact
Allison Cooper at:

ACooper@curetoday.com or visit:
www.onclive.com/meetings/soss

CHAIR:

Leo I Gordon, MD

Abby and John Friend Professor of Oncology Research;
Professor of Medicine (Hematology and Oncology)
Robert H. Lurie Comprehensive Cancer Center of Northwestern University

Speakers:

Reem Karmali, MD, MS

Assistant Professor of Medicine (Hematology and Oncology)
Robert H. Lurie Comprehensive Cancer Center of Northwestern University

Jayesh Mehta, MD

Professor of Medicine (Hematology and Oncology)
Robert H. Lurie Comprehensive Cancer Center of Northwestern University

Barbara Pro, MD

Professor of Medicine (Hematology and Oncology)
Robert H. Lurie Comprehensive Cancer Center of Northwestern University

Brady Stein, MD

Associate Professor of Medicine (Hematology and Oncology)
Robert H. Lurie Comprehensive Cancer Center of Northwestern University

Jane Winter, MD

Professor of Medicine (Hematology and Oncology)
Robert H. Lurie Comprehensive Cancer Center of Northwestern University

Olga Frankfurt, MD, MSCI

Associate Professor of Medicine (Hematology & Oncology)
Robert H. Lurie Comprehensive Cancer Center of Northwestern University

